La missione

Nella missione congiunta dell'Istituto Zaccaria, Zaccharis onlus, ITSTIME, CeSi - Università Cattolica, Perigeo Ong, è stata consegnata a Mar Ignatios Aphrem II, Patriarca della Chiesa siriano ortodossa a Damasco, la riproduzione del quadro di Maria Madre della Divina Provvidenza a suggellare il comune impegno per il popolo siriano e la salvaguardia della cristianità sotto l'auspicio della Vergine Maria.

Perché la Madonna della Divina provvidenza

Il quadro originale di Scipione Pulzone da Gaeta, "Mater Divinae Providentiae" del 1580, eseguito per l'altare di una nobile famiglia romana, fu donato nel 1663 all'ordine dei Chierici Regolari di San Paolo, conosciuti con il nome di Barnabiti, i quali la custodiscono a Roma nella Chiesa di San Carlo ai Catinari. Nel 1732 il parroco di San Carlo ne fece fare una copia dal pittore Pietro Valentini, allievo del pittore toscano Giovanni Maria Morandi, e la espose alla venerazione popolare all'interno della chiesa. La sua effigie venne venerata per chiedere aiuto e supporto nei momenti difficili e madre " ..della Chiesa intera, che spesso attribuì a Lei la propria salvezza nei tempi burrascosi delle persecuzioni". (A.Gentili; I Barnabiti; Roma 2012; pp 215)

Nel marzo del 1834, i Barnabiti ottennero da Papa Gregorio XVI di poter conferire alla Madre della Divina Provvidenza il titolo di «Ausiliatrice dei Cristiani», con il quale era stata invocata al tempo delle lotte contro i Turchi arrivati alle porte di Vienna.

Il padre generale Baravelli la scelse come effigie simbolo dei Barnabiti e il 5 agosto 1896 Padre Benedetto Nisser, allora Superiore Generale, stabilì che ogni chierico regolare doveva avere una copia di tale dipinto nella propria residenza.

Da allora il quadro della Madre della Divina provvidenza divenne, per i Padri Barnabiti, simbolo di conciliazione e protezione.

Percorso e storia del progetto

- Estate 2018, definizione del progetto e dei Cultural Focal Point quali motori di resilienza delle popolazioni locali e recupero delle proprie radici culturali e religiose per instaurare un processo di riappacificazione e rinascita nei luoghi colpiti dai conflitti.
- Autunno 2018, adesione dei padri Barnabiti al progetto con la proposta di portare l'immagine simbolo dell'ordine dei Chierici regolari di San Paolo, la Madre della Divina Provvidenza, quale simbolo del forte legame esistente con la Terra Santa e in particolare con Damasco e le sue genti.
- Fine 2018, realizzazione del quadro da parte del pittore Albert Edwin Flury.

- 20 dicembre, consegna del dipinto e benedizione presso la cappella dell'Istituto Zaccaria.
- 7 gennaio 2019, l'arcivescovo S.E. Monsignor Mario Delpini benedice l'icona della Cena misteriosa e la Madre della Divina

Provvidenza: le due sacre rappresentazioni costituiscono l'emblema della comunità cristiana che si vuole sostenere nel processo di pacificazione la cui “benedizione rappresenta la partecipazione e della diocesi di Milano” nella prossima missione “sintesi di cultura, carità e fede”

(S.E.Mons.M.Delpini)

In Siria

- 12 gennaio 2019, Damasco, consegna del quadro di Maria Madre della Divina Provvidenza nelle mani di Mar Ignatios Aphrem II, Patriarca della Chiesa siriano ortodossa, con una preghiera comune di Padre Ambrogio Valzasina e del Patriarca.

La Madre della Divina provvidenza è stata posizionata sulla parete principale della sala delle udienze del Patriarcato quale simbolo di pace per tutti gli incontri del Patriarca.

Testimone di Pace e riconciliazione
